

Heavy Artillery Firing On Belgic-Gallic Front Points to Another Drive

Indications Of Renewal Operations In Flanders And Champagne—But Little Definite Information In Either British Or French Statements—Artillery Duels Of Great Intensity In Flanders—British Resume Raiding Operations In Region Of Bapaume—Cambrai—Macedonian Field Promises Early Developments.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
Indications point to an early resumption of operations on a grand scale in Belgium and France, if, indeed, they have not already begun in Flanders and Champagne. A significant statement in the latest Berlin official communication is that in Flanders and Champagne "the fighting activity has been revived at several points." Aside from this there is no information to the exact status of affairs. In Champagne the Germans have made an attempt to recapture positions between Mont Blond and Mont Carnillet taken by the French Monday, but met with repulse suffering heavy casualties. To the northwest, around Craonne, heavy artillery duels are being fought.

The situation in Flanders is even more obscure, as neither the British nor French statements tend to clarify the German report of the resumption of operations. Artillery duels of great intensity are known to have been in progress between Boesinghe and Frelingheide, and in the region of Steenstraete and Het Sas, north of the south of France, in the neighborhood of the Bapaume-Cambrai railroad the British troops have resumed their trench raiding operations, destroying German dugouts and machine gun positions.

The Macedonian theatre also still holds forth the promise of early developments on a large scale, while the line between the Greek and Bulgarian forces are facing the Teutonic allies near the Greece-Serb border, the reports show only artillery duels to be in progress. The entente commander is still pouring men into Thessaly and occupying important positions. Another indication that the Greeks are turning toward the entente cause is shown by the fact that considerable quantities of arms and ammunition have been surrendered by the population of the invested towns and villages.

Again the Austrians have endeavored to dislodge the Italians from positions northeast of Jamiano in the Carso sector of the Austro-Italian theatre. A surprise attack has been repulsed with severe losses in men killed and made prisoner. On Monte Ronbo, however, the Austrians were more successful in an attack, capturing advanced posts of the Italians on the southeastern slopes of the mountain.

EIGHT DELEGATIONS WAIT UPON CITY COUNCIL—EARLY CLOSING PRINCIPAL ISSUE

Bylaws Ordered Drafted For Jewellers And Piano And Music Dealers—Early Closing Provision For Barbers Passed—Comes Into Effect July 2—Swimming Pool To Be Provided At Rutherford Park—Discussion On 1 Storey Premises On Jasper Ave.

Eight delegations waited upon the city council last night in regard to early closing of stores, the refreshment privileges in city parks, the provision of water for North Deitton school, the building of one-storey blocks on Jasper avenue, special privileges for hotel-keepers, the question of fire escapes, and a swimming pool in Rutherford Park. The bylaw for the early closing of barber shops was passed. It will come into effect July 2. The council decided to construct a swimming bath at Rutherford park to provide a bathing pool for the boys of the city.

The question of early closing came for a good deal of attention. In the place there was a delegation from the city jewellers, represented by the Messrs. Jackson, asking that the necessary steps be taken to enforce the closing of jewelry stores at 6.15 p.m. throughout the year, save on the month of December. It was stated that out of 24 such establishments, the owners of 21 had signed the petition. The council decided to refer the matter to the city solicitor, who should draft a by-law to cover the request, and that in the meantime the city assessor should be instructed to ascertain if the petition was properly signed.

There was also an application from the piano and music dealers in the city asking that such stores be closed at 6 p.m. every day. This was dealt with in a similar manner.

Barbers' Bylaw Passed
The by-law enforcing the early closing of barber shops was finally read and passed, and will come into force on July 2nd.

On application of a deputation of barbers, the hours of closing were changed to 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., and from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Saturday. A letter was received from the trades and labor council, asking that the council take up the question of early closing of half-holiday through the city. After discussion council agreed that they were powerless to take any action, and it was decided to inform the Trades and Labor council of this effect, but that some action could be carried out on receipt of a general petition from storekeepers in the city.

There is to be a dam made at Mill creek at Rutherford park, so that the boys can have a swimming pool. The proposal is that the maximum depth shall be 4 1/2 feet and the dam is not to cost more than $10,000.

A deputation consisting of A. L. A. and the Rev. Val Tilton, and A. Campbell urged the claims of the boys' council was obliged to turn a deaf ear to a number of requests made by Mr. Matheson, on behalf of the Hotel keepers association, as all the sub-tenants were out of the hotel. Mr. Matheson asked that the taxation of hotels be reduced, that they be al-

CONDITION OF CHILDREN IN WAR REGION

Shattered And Broken As Somme Forest—Never Be Quite Normal Again.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
BEHIND THE BRITISH LINES IN FRANCE, June 19.—Associated Press Correspondent.—The French children found in the villages of northern France evacuated by the Germans under the pressure of the British and French offensives, present a picture of the savagery of modern warfare as characteristic as the Somme forest, shattered and broken by months of shell fire.

Many of these children are orphans without home or relatives. Many have been grievously wounded. Most of them suffer from a species of shell-shock which affects them generally with a sort of tremor not unlike St. Vitus' dance.

They have had life and death, horrors human and inhuman, revealed to them in guises so terrible that they will never be quite normal again. All are underfed and frail from confinement in cellars. Cries of sudden fear from relations and friends some time ago, they have continued to live within a few hundred yards of the front lines, listening always to the thud of shells and the crash of exploding shells until their idea of heaven is "a place that is very quiet."

Everything that can be done to care for and care for them is now being done, constituting one of the most important tasks of the French committees on reconstruction.

One French organization has a hospital with 400 child patients all under 12 years of age. Most of them are wounded. Some have lost legs and arms, others their sight, others are suffering from brain fever or a puzzling anaemia under which they waste away rapidly.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE WITH MAYOR HENRY

The city council last night passed a resolution of condolence to Mayor Henry on the death of his mother and the commissioners were instructed to send a wreath with the message.

ADJOURNMENT OF EX-MINISTER'S CASE

Sir Rodmond Roblin's Illness Cause Of Delay Of Trial Proceedings.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
WINNIPEG, Man., June 19.—At the request of the crown lawyers Mr. Justice Treadwell this afternoon granted an adjournment until Monday afternoon in the case against the ex-ministers. This was after R. C. Bonnar, chief crown counsel, had conferred with the attorney-general, who said Mr. Bonnar wanted some time for consideration of his further course.

Mr. Bonnar said the crown was willing to proceed with the charges of conspiracy against Messrs. Howden and Coldwell, since Sir Rodmond Roblin was too ill to appear. The defense objected to the charges being judged "pro rata" and the judge's understanding of the law of conspiracy was that a severance of charges was not allowed.

SAYS PREMIER YIELDED TO AGITATION

Sir Sam Hughes Asserts There Was Let-Up In Recruiting Early 1916.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
OTTAWA, June 19.—Only three speeches were disposed of in the commons today in the debate on the second reading of the conscription bill and Sir Wilfrid Laurier's referendum amendment thereto. Sir Sam Hughes, premier, spoke for two hours and was followed by Hugh Guthrie, who did not conclude until the evening sitting. Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux then held the floor until 11 o'clock, when Hon. T. W. Crothers moved the adjournment of the debate.

Sir Sam Hughes supported the bill but stated that in some way he would prefer that action to increase the fighting forces at the front should be taken under the militia act. He suggested that in order that no time should be lost the militia act should be enforced until the conscription bill has become law.

Sir Sam repeated the assertion he has made on former occasions that during the early summer of 1916 there had been a let-up in recruiting. He asserted that Sir Robert Borden had spoken to him in regard to the matter and this action was due to an agitation which arose in regard to the shortage of labor, to which Sir Robert had yielded.

Hugh Guthrie, Liberal member for South Wellington, came out in favor of the principle of the government's bill, although he said he might not agree with all its details. He expressed himself as being opposed to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's referendum proposal, asserting that this was a matter with which parliament should deal. Mr. Guthrie favored the conscription of wealth and expressed the hope that this would be dealt with this session. He maintained that there were many young men in the cities and towns who would never be reached except by a conscription measure. He urged the leaders to try to form a coalition government.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux asserted that solemn promises had been given to the people of Quebec that conscription would not be introduced. He caused some excitement by declaring that the government had decided on conscription of blood for election purposes. Mr. Lemieux promised that if a referendum carried, the people of the province of Quebec would loyally accept conscription.

WAR JUST BEGINNING
BOSTON, June 19.—The war, in the opinion of Lord Northcliffe, British commissioner to the United States, is just beginning. In a communication from him read to a meeting to further the Red Cross fund, Lord Northcliffe said he based his opinion on "Much experience at the front."

AUSTRALIA MAY HAVE SELECTIVE CONSCRIPTION NOW

Report States Returns Suggest Public Is Being Reconciled To It.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, June 19.—(C. A. F.)—The Times' Sydney correspondent says that statements made by federal ministers and members since the holding of the federal sitting clearly indicate that the federal parliament intends to make a final effort to obtain recruits for the volunteer army. The returns suggest that this is extremely unlikely, as the public mind is gradually becoming reconciled to selective conscription.

CHINA ON EVE OF CIVIL WAR SAY REPORTS

Southern Provinces Making War-like Preparations—President Puppet In Hands Dictator.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
PEKIN, Monday, June 18.—The southern provinces are rapidly making warlike preparations and are negotiating with the southwest provinces to join them. They have been assured of support from this quarter, and civil war is not improbable.

President Li Yuan Hung is virtually a puppet in the hands of the military. General Chang Hsun, who has assumed the power of dictator, has forced the secretariat staff to resign.

Former members of parliament and friends of the president are not permitted to enter the palace. No compromise has been reached on account of the military's opposition to General Chang Hsun. His nominee for premier, Li Ching Hai, is unable to obtain the consent of officials to serve in a cabinet with him.

The military is attempting to force the president to issue mandates dissolving the provisional constitution, pardoning the monarchists and establishing Confucianism as the state religion.

WALL STREET PAYS TRIBUTE CANADIANS

Journal Says Achievements Of Contingents Long Survive In History Worth.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
NEW YORK, June 19.—Under the heading "Conscription in Canada," the Wall Street Journal says editorially: "Canada has a voting population of 1,600,000, including the old and feeble, and a relatively large number of young men of military age."

The journal says that the volunteer system, with all its faults of wastage of men and supplies, did not at least enlist popular support. The journal says that the industrial population of the Dominion has been classified and an effort has been made to organize the surplus labor who could be most economically dispensed with. Now, to round out the national service organization of the Dominion, a bill has been introduced for conscription.

"When the history of the Dominion in this war shall have been written it will not be recorded that she voluntarily failed to meet the high expectations of her premier, for volunteers were in abundance, as they have always been. But it was necessary to have a reserve force in regard to an equitable distribution of the burden by localities and with reference to the state of industry, and in the event of a general mobilization Sir Robert Borden that Canada would send at least half a million men overseas."

The achievements of the volunteer Canadian contingents will survive in the traditions of the north long after every monument to commemorate them shall have perished. Not the least of these acts of heroic sacrifice was the stand of the first contingent with not much more than a rifle and bayonet against the most powerful formation up to that time developed in warfare. The defence cost Canada many of her best born and best beloved ones, but it stayed the German advance and the present possible investment of Paris, the isolation of France and the collapse of her heroic and successful defense."

ADVENT MALARIAL SEASON COMPELS MOVEMENT TROOPS

British Headquarters Explains Withdrawal From Points East Of Struma.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, June 19.—An official statement from British headquarters at Salonika, issued tonight, says: "Owing to the advent of the malarial season our troops east of the Struma have been somewhat withdrawn. Our patrols are active on the banks of the river, and have cleared Honoma, Jenikoi, Cucullia, Cavdarnak, Elvan and Hazmatars, which small hostile detachments had occupied. The east bank of the river is now dominated by our positions on the hills west of the river."

CURRIE TAKES COMMAND OF CANADIANS

Acting Since Sir Julian Byng Left—Went With First Contingent.

(By the Canadian Overseas Correspondent.)
CANADIAN HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Tuesday, June 19, via London.—Sir Arthur Currie, who has been acting commander of the Canadian corps since Sir Julian Byng left, returned to headquarters this morning, having been authorized to take over the command.

Sir Arthur came to France with the original overseas contingent as a brigadier and has had a part in all the major engagements of the corps. His appointment greatly pleases the men in the trenches. He is the first Canadian to command the corps. His predecessors, Generals Alderson and Byng, were both imperial officers of long service and distinction.

The new Canadian commander is a member of the firm of Currie & Power, real estate agents, Victoria, B.C. He is the son of Wm. Garner Currie, and was born at Napperton, Ontario, December 5, 1875. He was educated at Strathroy Collegiate Institute. In 1893 he went to British Columbia and taught school at Sycamore, B.C. He served 14 years with the 14th Regiment Canadian Garrison Artillery.

LONDON, June 19.—"I have no wish to interfere with the current political controversies," said Sir Arthur Currie, the new commander of the Canadian corps in France, last night, "but my personal conviction is that the only solution of the Canadian recruiting problem is conscription. I believe that many difficulties which now threaten the adoption of such a policy would disappear before prompt and bold action. My experience in France shows me, not as a politician but as a soldier, the necessity of conscription if we desire to maintain the full strength of our fighting divisions to the end of the war."

Destructive Fires in Three Quebec Towns Cause $750,000 Loss

Within A Forty-Mile Radius Of Montreal—Visited Almost Simultaneously—Sorel's Waterfront Fire Swept—Loss $500,000—Outbreaks Also In St. Hilaire And St. Johns—No Loss Of Life Reported—Canada Steamship Lines' Plant Destroyed At Sorel.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
MONTREAL, June 19.—Three towns within a forty mile radius of Montreal, were visited almost simultaneously early this morning by disastrous fires which in damage done will total nearly three quarters of a million dollars. Sorel's waterfront was fire-swept with a loss estimated at over $500,000. St. Hilaire and St. Johns also had disastrous outbreaks. No loss of life is reported.

At Sorel the plant of the Canada Steamship Lines, Ltd., employing about 400 men, was destroyed, together with some thirty dwellings, a number of business establishments and several vessels in process of building. The fire started in the shops of the steamship company, and was driven toward the heart of the town by a brisk wind. The outbreak was brought under control after a four hours fight.

The blaze at St. Hilaire, which destroyed one manufactory, three dwellings, one store and several barns and outhouses and for a time threatened the entire town, originated in the factory of the Sorel Fireproofing Co., Ltd., which was engaged in turning out barrel staves. It started at midnight and at 2 a.m., with a change of wind, burned itself out, the loss being roughly $150,000.

STARS AND STRIPES BLEND WITH THE UNION JACK AT ALBERTA BAPTIST MEETING

Gathering Sings "Star Spangled Banner" With Enthusiasm—One Hundred Delegates From All Parts Of Province Attend Convention—Ministerial Conference In Afternoon—Missionaries From Bolivia And India Address Women's Meetings.

A flag incident, in which the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes figured jointly, was the outstanding dramatic episode of the evening meeting of the Alberta Women's Missionary convention, which opened in the McDonald Memorial Church Tuesday, in connection with the 19th annual convention of the Baptist churches of the province. C. R. Sayer, in concluding an interesting address on the subject of missionary work in Alberta, which dealt with settlers of 53 nationalities, speaking 18 languages, and dialects, described a recent visit which he had made to the convention of the Baptists of the northern United States, held in Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Sayer said that he had been invited to speak in behalf of Canada and had presented the convention with a Canadian flag. In return he had been given a United States flag, which he then and there produced and spread across the British ensign, which draped the speakers' stand.

"The Star-Spangled Banner." The audience clapped enthusiastically and sang "The Star-Spangled Banner" with gusto. Not many knew the words and only a few were acquainted with the air, but all could hum and a very respectable volume of sound resulted.

Then Rev. Dr. MacDonald, of Pittsburg, president of the American Negro Baptist Association, was introduced to respond. Dr. MacDonald launched a laugh when he remarked that he was evidently called on to add a touch of color to the occasion, and proceeded to speak briefly on the essential co-operation and cordiality existing between the two countries of Canada and the United States.

Dr. Allyn's Lecture.
Dr. Jessie Allyn, of Edmonton, who has just returned home after a long tour of duty at Pithampur, India, gave a talk on "Mission work in that country." Dr. Allyn wore Hindu costume and exhibited a number of charms and amulets which she had brought home and which she assured the audience had been properly utilized. She described in detail the ceremonies performed when a baby was born to the rajah of the district. Being a medical missionary, Dr. Allyn said that they had to contend with in the way of ignorance and disease among the Hindu population.

An inspiring song service was led by C. G. Stone, and the church was filled to its capacity with delegates and friends. Mrs. C. M. Staines, of Calgary, the president of the women's association, was in the chair.

Ministerial Conference.
The ministerial conference, which opened the convention properly, was attended by nearly all the 100 delegates who are in attendance from all parts of the province. It was held in the basement assembly room of the church, the women using the main auditorium.

The principal feature of the men's session was an address by the Rev. O. C. Horsman, pastor of the First Baptist church of Edmonton, who spoke on "The Development of the Minister Intellectually." A vigorous discussion followed, which was led by the Rev. A. D. Ritchie, of Olds, and the Rev. H. L. Kempton, city.

Rev. F. W. Duford and Rev. R. G. Bundell read papers on the development of the minister from the executive and the devotional standpoint. At the afternoon session papers were presented by Rev. Charles Baker on "How shall we conserve our church membership?" Rev. J. L. Jordan on "The Place of the Church in Reform Work," and George Hilton on "Personal Evangelism." Interesting discussions followed the reading of the papers.

At six o'clock the delegates sat down to a fine banquet, served by the ladies, and a reception served to introduce the visitors to one another.

The Women's Convention.
The program as outlined for the women was carried out without a hitch and proved of intense interest to the earnest workers present. After the devotional exercises, which were led by Mrs. Miles, the minutes of the last convention were read and adopted, followed by roll call of delegates, the reading of new certificates and appointments of committees. Reports of officers and conveners of committees were then read by the following ladies:

At St. Johns, a fire breaking out at 1.30 a.m. swept the Miller Block and several other buildings at the corner of Richelieu and St. Charles streets. After three hours of hard fighting the St. Johns fire department was able to gain control of the flames, although the block in which the fire started and other business premises had been destroyed. The loss here was estimated at $80,000.

Recording secretary, Mrs. W. W. MacNeil; treasurer, Mrs. W. E. Toney; corresponding secretary, Mrs. R. F. Harrison; superintendent of bands, Miss A. A. Davidson; girls' auxiliary, Mrs. O. B. Stockford; bureau of literature, Mrs. C. C. McLaughlin; board of women's work, Mrs. E. L. Hill.

Mission Work in Bolivia.
Mrs. A. G. Baker, of Bolivia, South America, a missionary on furlough, gave a vivid account of manners and customs of South American women and native Indians, at the afternoon session of the Women's Missionary convention. Mrs. Baker was most graphic in her descriptions and made a great impression on the audience. The speaker also gave reasons why the Protestant Christian teaching is so necessary in that part of the world.

After the opening exercise the minutes were read and adopted and a report of the nominating and resolution committees were accepted. Very encouraging Miss Houlding, of Calgary, reports of the mission band work as read by Miss Lines and Miss Elliott. A specially interesting discussion followed.

President's Address.
The president's address was given by Mrs. C. M. Staines, of Calgary, the keynote of which was "the steadfastness of God and His unchangeableness." Mrs. Staines pleaded with the women to take this as their motto in this time of stress and strain. The conference which followed the president's address was in many ways the most interesting item in the day's program, which was led by Mrs. E. L. Hill. A large number of the delegates took part and much help was given and received from this conference. Mrs. Arthur Gainer gave a series of difficult questions in 174 work of the auxiliary. Miss Houlding, of Calgary, showing in her reply how easily overcome these seeming difficulties were.

Today's convention program is as follows:
9.30 a.m.—Devotional service: "Knowledge," Rev. F. A. McNulty.
10.00 a.m.—President's address, Rev. J. E. Tiner.
10.30 a.m.—Appointment of press reporters; minutes of last convention; secretary-treasurer's report; appointment of agenda and nominating committees; production of new pastors and churches.
11.15 a.m.—Paper: "Problem of the Rural Church," Rev. A. J. Bowbrick. Discussion led by Mr. D. McEachern.
12.00 p.m.—Adjournment.
2.00 p.m.—Devotional service: "Self Control," Rev. A. J. Nordland.
2.30 p.m.—Report of nominating committee; election of officers.
3.00 p.m.—Report of mission board, including a report of the state of the work for whole province. Rev. C. C. McLaughlin; adoption of report moved by Rev. L. Elgin Brough; adoption of report seconded by Mr. T. Underwood; reports from Russian, Scandinavian and German representatives.
5.00 p.m.—Adjournment.
8.00 p.m.—Platform meeting: convention sermon, Rev. Duncan Ritchie; address on Christian education, Rev. J. A. Huntley.

W. H. CARSON SHAFTSBURY'S SERIOUSLY ILL

Pioneer of North Country Stricken with Paralysis and in Critical Condition

(Special to the Bulletin.)
Peace River, June 19.—Word was received here on Thursday of the serious illness of W. H. Carson, of Shaftsbury, near Peace River. Mr. Carson, who was the second school teacher of Edmonton, having taught in a small building on the corner of 104th street, where the McKay school building now stands, suffered a stroke of paralysis on Saturday morning and is now in the hospital in Peace River in a critical condition. Mr. Carson was a pioneer of the north country, having terminated when he landed at Peace River to settle there rather than continue further. He was the first white settler on the north side of the river who really farmed the land, outside of the Anglican missionaries. Mr. Carson's home was for many, many years the place where the school children of the north country gathered to hear the old teacher tell the names of some of his former Edmonton pupils, among them the "children" of the Great, Ross, McCauley, Cameron, Garnett, Henderson and Macdonald families.

Mr. Carson was born near Ottawa in 1859. Among his relatives in the west are his brother, E. Carson, of the Dominion lands at Peace River, and Miss Fannie Carson, his youngest sister, also of Peace River. Another sister, Mrs. Wilson, resides in Seattle.

WAS TO WORK FROM SUN UP TO SUNSET

Young Man From East Made Mistake When He Went to Work in North

A story told on Sheridan Lawrence, the big farmer and trader of Ft. Vermilion, who is at present in the city, is too good to keep.

It seems when on a visit to the city some two years ago he hired an easterner to go north to do farm work for him. After the bargain was made, the struggling young man, who the east seemed to have something weighing on him and hung around Mr. Lawrence until finally he eased his mind by saying: "Now, Lawrence, I want to work, but I'd kinder like to have it understood that when I've worked from sun up until sunset, it is to be a day's work. I don't like to work after dark. Of course, I don't mind milking a few cows after supper." Mr. Lawrence, who is a big good natured westerner, said with a twinkle in his eye he guessed that would be alright, thinking to himself of the summer days at Ft. Vermilion when the sun only sets for a few minutes then goes back at the job again as though there had been no night.

Anyway, in due time the new hand arrived on the job and according to agreement was set to work at sunup and was told to quit at sundown. Things went all right until the month of June arrived, when the lengthening days began to tell on the young man's nerves. He went to a cellar where it was dark and was asleep in the twinkling of an eye after each day's work, only to be awakened in what seemed to him to be but a minute.

A few days of this and he appealed to Mr. Lawrence for a change in his agreement for he had a new conception of what working in the "land of the midnight sun" was like.

How Selection of Homestead Can Best be Made in the North; Some Hints to the Newcomer

Many Points at Which Intending Land Seeker Can Leave Train and Spy Out Land—Large Amount of Farm Land Surveyed Out Still Open For Entry—Where Some of Best is Available.

A great many travelers now going into the Peace will be interested in knowing the best and most economical way of seeing the north country, especially those parts where the greatest amount of homestead lands awaits settlement.

There are three main points where the intending settler can leave the train and find himself near where land open to settlement lays ready for entry, and there are a great number of small stations along the E. D. & B. C. where one can find land still unopened. There are three land offices in the north and three sub offices. The main offices are at Peace River, Grande Prairie and Grouard. The office at Peace River accepts filings on land situated along the Peace River and south of that stream as far as Fahler. The Grouard office covers the territory between the Athabasca River and Fahler and the country north of Lesser Slave Lake, also the country as far south as the foothills of the Rockies. The Grande Prairie office accepts filings on land west of the Smoky River to the B. C. line and includes that territory known as the B. C. block. Its jurisdiction extends from the Peace to the Rockies.

Three Sub Offices
There is a sub office at Fort Vermilion, at Fort St. John and at Spirit River. These all take filings on land in their vicinity but one has to wait until the entry is forwarded to the main office before being sure of the result.

It must be remembered by intending homesteaders that for six years people have been pouring into Peace River country and courses through who had their pick would naturally take the choicest locations. This season there has been close to fifteen hundred settlers, and fully fifty per cent. of them have filed.

There still remains a great deal of good farm land surveyed and open for entry in the great country known as the Peace, but it takes a great deal more time now to find what suits one than formerly. The land lies farther back from the railway and trails, it is not so open. Many homestead sites yet unopened are adjoining lands that will not for years be taken for homesteading purposes and can be leased from the government as pasture lands. The possibilities on these homesteads are in many cases greater than one would have out in the open prairie as one cannot only farm but the leased lands in addition.

Oil Prospecting Ft. McMurray Dist.

FOR FT. McMURRAY, June 19.—Warm weather, accompanied by frequent rains has overcome the hands of the oil well at House River. It is still in evidence, despite contrary comment.

J. C. Parker of Edmonton will leave Athabasca the first of next week via the Athabasca river with an oil drilling outfit, exact location not ascertained but probably near Tait's well below Ft. McKay, or thirty-five miles north of McMurray on Athabasca river.

Rumors from substantial sources indicate the proximity of petroleum in the oil well at House River. It is still in evidence, despite contrary comment.

GLENREAGH
Bulletin Correspondence.

The election is over at last. The choice of the majority was Dr. State, the liberal candidate.

Mails have changed to Tuesdays and Fridays from Sunday and Thursday, which is a very welcome change.

Glenreagh school closes a very successful term on the 29th of this month. Both teacher and pupils will have earned a rest. We were indeed fortunate to secure the services of Miss Lypps, who has been a very conscientious teacher; she won the hearts of all her pupils and they have shown a marked improvement under her guidance. School will reopen in September with Miss Lypps as teacher.

Mrs. H. D. Burch received word last week that her niece, Miss Neta Wilson of Montebello, Wis., had undergone a very successful operation for appendicitis. Miss Wilson spent the summer and fall of 1915 with her aunt here.

S. T. Burch is shingling his granary this week.

Rev. Orton will preach his farewell sermon in Glenreagh church on Sunday morning. Mr. Orton has accepted a charge at Innisfree. He will be greatly missed in this and surrounding districts for he has been a great worker for the good of the community. We wish him much success in his new home.

Best Way to Find Lands
The best way at present to find the open lands is to go to one of the towns mentioned and either buy a horse or rent one at the many livery and with a blanket and small food supply leave the main trails and search the country for the best land. The best land is secured from the land office. Each of the land office towns has an official land guide who will show the settler the land open, at a nominal cost, and in some cases the use of the land guide proves the quickest and cheapest way of getting what one wants.

In case one locally does not suit the settler it is now an easy matter to get across country from point to point, as auto and team routes are in operation and the passenger rate is very reasonable. These routes generally run direct through the best settled districts, giving one a good chance to see the places that have been improved to the point that they show the north country can be made to do. All the settlers gladly tell their story of success and give information.

As for open tracts of land, well back from the present settled district, there are a number that offer the new comers homes of splendid advantages. On the north side of the Peace, near Fort St. John there is a large country yet unsettled. This country lies high and the land is the very best that lacks railway accommodation. It is best reached by boat from Peace River. The land agent there is well posted and will willingly give information to settlers.

South of the Peace River, across the Smoky, there is a large tract of land still open to entry. This country is park-like and the land is of the very choicest. It is reached from Grande Prairie, where one can secure plans from the land office. A good deal of choice land still lays round about the whole Grande Prairie valley, likewise around Spirit River and Peace River. Along the line now under development from Spirit River to Peace River there are a large number of good locations with good grazing land adjoining.

If one is going to the Peace to homestead and the writer's advice is, don't be in a hurry about making your choice; take several weeks to find what suits you. Better put in a week or so and get what looks good to you rather than years of regret over a too hurried choice.

HEAVIEST CROP IN YEARS EXPECTED SPIRIT RIVER DIST.

W. J. Lowler Brings South Sample Of Wheat 16 Inches Long.

Samples of wheat sixteen inches in height were brought to Edmonton from the ranches of the Lowler Brothers, Spirit River, on Sunday's train from the north. This wheat was sown during the first week in April and has never been frosted or set back by dry weather. The crops throughout the north are in splendid condition, reports W. J. Lowler, who has just returned from a trip to Spirit River, and if nothing happens between now and August 15th the wheat will be the heaviest ever grown in the country. There are many settlers coming into the Spirit Valley and every bit of land available for home making is being filed off rapidly," he says.

EIGHT DELEGATIONS WAIT UPON COUNCIL

ments. It was stated that a number of appeals had been received. The demands of Mr. Kenwood with regard to his property was referred to the finance committee, with power to act. The claim of Mr. Bond was also sent on to the same committee.

Lumber in Sidewalks.
The streets superintendent recommended that the streets be repaved with the Fraser & Co. be accepted for the supply of 150,000 feet of spruce lumber and 20,000 feet of tan bark for repairs to sidewalks and bridges. As the prices were not submitted, council referred the report back for the public to be heard.

Alderman Grant asked if the dimension was any better than he had seen going into the sidewalks. He had examined some supposed 2 inch plank and found that it was little better than one inch.

Alderman MacDonald asked if it could not have been rejected?

Alderman Grant said that he put the question to the council without the said that he had no authority to turn it down.

Alderman MacDonald: "There ought to be someone responsible to see to this, if it is not being done, then someone ought to be jacked up about it."

Council passed an order for the purchase of not more than four acres of land from the Canada Cement Co. at $3.35 per barrel, including sacks, 10 cts. Edmonton, an allowance of 10 cts per sack to be made when turned over.

To Grade Golf Road.
The recommendation of the commissioners that the Victoria Park golf links should be graded at a cost of $800 was adopted, and the cost is to be financed out of the earnings of the golf links.

The commissioners reported that they had examined the new market building and found it satisfactory, and the report was accepted.

Alderman MacDonald said that he objected to the building inspector making changes in the specifications on his own initiative, as he stated in his report.

A letter was read from the Edmonton Power Company stating that the total expenditure on hydro-electric development to date was in the neighborhood of $500,000. Work in the neighborhood of $100,000 has been in progress since December and the company was cutting timber and making railway ties, "using such labor as is at present available without employing men liable for military service."

"What does that mean?" asked Ald. MacArthur. "That they are employing only Germans."

Ald. MacDonald: "No; that they only take men over 60 years of age." Ald. Kinney: "No; it means that the number of men is due to their patriotism."

Commissioners submitted a report covering the conditions of the leading city firms to the city council. The report included the use of machinery and furniture and the payment of Mr. Lyon's salary to June 30th.

The report was referred to the finance committee, which recommended that the salary of Mr. Lyon be paid to the end of June.

Ald. MacDonald said that he was of the opinion that the machinery was to have been sold at the same time as the stock.

Sanction New Scale
Council sanctioned the payment of mechanics at the street railway yards under the city scale was recommended by the commissioners.

The finance committee, in conjunction with the commissioners, were given authority to deal with the question of increases of wages to the employees of the telephone and electric light departments.

The tender of Messrs. Gorman, Clardy and Gray for the supply of three miles of copper trolley wire at $43.35 per 100 pounds was accepted. The total expenditure will be $2,900.

Council agreed to soldiers from the military hospital at Strathcona, having free street car service one way when taking the car at 85th and 88th avenues. It was stated that this would apply to soldiers on leave from the south when boarding cars at these points. The question was raised by Ald. Douglas, who said he thought this point should be considered.

The health officer was authorized to issue permits for the installation of yard water hydrants, the permits to be for one year only and subject to council approval.

The recommendation of the finance committee that an assistant be allowed to Probation Officer T. S. Magee, was approved by council, the commissioner to advertise the position.

COLD STORAGE OPERATORS ARE GIVEN A BOOST

OTTAWA, June 19.—That the cold storage establishments are not so badly off as they have been represented, a conclusion of the cost of living commissioner, W. F. O'Connor, K. C., in a report he has submitted dealing with the investigation of 100 of such companies. The report, which is a preliminary one, is entirely statistical. The data includes the quantities of food purchased by the companies, the cost of the food, and the average cost per pound, total quantities sold, prices per pound and a lot of similar details. The conclusions are summarized as follows:

During 1916 butter (all grades) cost the cold storage companies an average price of 35-40 cents per pound, and they sold it at an average price of 32-35 cents per pound. Eggs cost them an average of 15-18 cents per pound and they sold it at an average of 18-20 cents per pound. Pork averaged them in cost 14-15 cents and was sold at an average of 16-18 cents per pound. The average selling price for home consumption of all grades of beef was 15-16 cents per pound and they sold it at an average of 17-18 cents per pound. Bacon cost them an average of 18-20 cents per pound and they sold it at an average of 20-22 cents per pound. The average selling price for home consumption of all grades of pork was 18-20 cents per pound and they sold it at an average of 20-22 cents per pound. Mutton and lamb averaged 16-18 cents in cost and sold at an average price of 17-18 cents.

Export and domestic average sale prices were about the same. These are, of course, wholesale prices, but they have been checked in many cases by retail prices in the departmental stores and others, the actual invoices, showing prices charged by the cold storage establishments from time to time.

BOARD HEARS DENIALS FROM MGR. MCGRAW

Pres. Tender Of National League Stated Incident Now "Closed"

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
NEW YORK, June 19.—At a special meeting of the board of directors of the National League, held here today, a statement of denial of having said anything derogatory to the league, its president, John K. Tener, or any of its club members, was submitted by Manager McGraw of the New York National League Club and accepted by the directors. After the meeting President Tener refused to make any comment further than to say that the incident was "closed."

Following is the statement made by Manager McGraw:

"Gentlemen: I have this day read for the first time certain scurrilous newspaper articles under the date of June 14, purporting to represent interviews between myself and reporters criticizing the National League, some of its clubs and its president, John K. Tener."

"After having read the same carefully I desire to state that I did not make these statements or give out by intimation any utterance that might be construed to in any way reflect upon the ability, honesty, and integrity of the president of the league, or any of its club members or officials, or upon the league or the game itself."

NO STARTLING SURPRISES IN NOMINATIONS

Candidates Named In 59 Constituencies For Elections In Saskatchewan.

REGINA, Sask., June 19.—Nomination proceedings in Saskatchewan's fourth provincial general election passed off quietly today, with no startling surprises taking place. Of the fifty-nine constituencies in the province nominations were made in fifty-seven, the election in the two far northern ridings of Ile La Crosse and Assiniboia being held over to the deferred class. In addition nomination of soldiers' candidates for the three representatives of the men now overseas were placed some time later across the water.

Only two acclamations were reported. D. J. Sykes, who has the unique honor in Canadian history of having been the choice of three distinct and separate nominating conventions, first Non-Partisan League, second Conservative, third Liberal, will be the representative of Swift Current in the next house. Also, as a result of an arrangement made between the Liberal and Conservative organizations, whereby Lieut. Macbeth Malcolm, Liberal in Hanley, and now on home leave recovering from wounds, and Lieut. Colonel Joseph Glenn, Conservative in South Qu'Appelle, were to be returned unopposed, the former is returned by acclamation, Colonel Glenn will have to go to the polls, not because a Liberal is opposed to his return, but because he has been up to their agreement, but because an independent candidate in the person of David Raitton, a well known farmer in the Swift Current field. The election of Glenn is, however, generally conceded.

In all other constituencies the Liberals have been in the field. The Conservatives did not nominate in Last Mountain, leaving the fight there to a non-partisan candidate, who is opposing S. J. Latta, Liberal.

Intense interest was added to the contest by the nomination of a woman candidate in Thunder Creek constituency, where Mrs. E. V. Haight is running on the Non-Partisan League ticket in opposition to the "straight Liberal and Conservative nominees."

In addition to the voting in the home constituencies, all soldiers having been from Saskatchewan and still in Canada will vote for the Fome constituency candidates on June 26. This has necessitated opening polls in all the camps in the province and also at Petawawa Camp in Ontario and Aldershot Camp in Nova Scotia.

The Liberals have fifty-five candidates, of whom is elected by acclamation in the person of Lieut. Macbeth Malcolm, for Hanley, and the Conservatives have fifty-three, the Liberals having the edge in the field. Sixty-five of the province and also at Petawawa Camp in Ontario and Aldershot Camp in Nova Scotia.

In the cities there were no surprises. Ron W. Haight, who is a farmer's wife, and E. B. Haight, being nominated in Regina. D. E. MacKenzie, Donald MacLean and A. M. Eddy in Saskatoon, while in Moose Jaw and Prince Albert the nominations went off as expected.

Of the candidates running the Liberals have thirty-five farmers, four merchants, five lawyers, with a doctor, a publisher, and a druggist, and a sprinkling of agents of one kind or another. On the Conservative side there are thirty-two farmers in the field, six lawyers, four merchants and a couple of physicians and two or three agents.

The Non-Partisan candidates are all farmers with the exception of Mrs. Haight, who is a farmer's wife, and the independents, with the exception of two labor candidates, are also men from the land.

RUNAWAY DAM'S RLY. GATES
While William McKelvey was delivering parcels at the Norwood Bakery about six o'clock Tuesday evening his horse took fright, and running south on First street, ran into and damaged the lowered C.N.R. gates. The horse was attached to a wagon belonging to the Edmonton Laundry Company.

C. N. R. STATES CASE FOR GREATER RATES

At the sitting of railway commission Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Philip, K.C., on behalf of the C.N.R., submitted a statement of comparative expenditure for railway maintenance only, not capital expenditure, showing an increase of revenue and that during the last year. This worked out at over five million dollars, and, with additional cost of labor, Judge Philip said that the extra cost could be less than six million dollars. He said that it was estimated that the increases would not yield more than five million dollars.

M. H. McLeod, general manager of the C.N.R., also gave a statement of increased cost of operation between the years 1914 and 1917.

Mr. Fisher pointed out that classification 17 was going to mean a large increase of revenue and that this should be a factor in any decision.

Mr. Philip drew the attention of the commissioners to a news item in the Edmonton Bulletin, which referred to the cost of repairs to the waterworks and street railway departments being opened at two city hall and mention was made of how prices had increased. Judge Philip asked that the item be filed as evidence.

The chairman intimated that no decision would be given until later, as the matter would be spoken to at other points where the commission would sit.

Rates on Fish.
Evidence was heard supporting the application of R. L. Shimmis, of Edmonton, for an order compelling the C.N.R. to pay for the cost of carrying fish, which provides for the cancellation of the arrangement whereby fish, in carloads, is carried at net weight from Edmonton to points in the United States. Virtually, Mr. Shimmis, who is a fish buyer and also fisherman in the northern lakes, asked for an order that the express companies should increase the rates, as proposed, from Edmonton to Chicago. Mr. Shimmis said that it was suggested to increase the rate by 70 cents.

The application was opposed by the traffic master of the Dominion Express Company.

Mr. Shimmis said that owing to the increased cost of labor they could not afford to pay any increase of express rates. He contended that about 70 carloads of fish would be shipped out this year.

The chairman intimated that decision would be given later.

A similar answer was given to Col. Edwards, who asked that a station on the G.T.P. be provided at Cooking Lake, with a caretaker during four months of the summer. Col. Edwards said that the Cooking Lake attracted many visitors and there was no certainty as to trains arriving on time, so it was a necessity for a place to be provided where women and children could wait, also where the telephone or telegraph could be obtained.

On the application of the city solicitor, the commissioners postponed indefinitely the order for a half-interlocking plant to be established at the G.T.P. This means that the city will continue the present practice of having a flagman at the crossing.

The arrangements between the city and the C.N.R. with regard to a diversion at Connor's Hill road were approved.

STRONG OBJECTION MADE BY EDMONTON BOARD OF TRADE FREIGHT CLASSIFICATION

Board of Railway Commissioners Hears Arguments at Meeting in the City—F. T. Fisher is Chief Speaker on Behalf of Board. H. H. Cooper and J. E. Brown Also Make Representations.

The application of the Canadian Freight Association for approval of their proposed new freight classification, the proposed increase in the rail and water rates from eastern to western Canada; the application of the railway companies to make a percentage advance on all class and commodity freight rates; and on all passenger fares of 16 per cent, and a specific increase of 16 cents per ton on both bituminous and anthracite coal, were the chief matters dealt with by the Board of Railway Commissioners, consisting of Sir Henry Drayton and S. P. McLean at its sitting at Edmonton today, the proceedings taking place at the court house.

In the case evidence for and against was taken, the chairman, Sir Henry Drayton, saying that this case was being adopted at all points and that decision would be given later.

F. T. Fisher, secretary of the Edmonton Board of Trade, was the chief objector as representing that body, to the proposed new freight classification. In the course of a lengthy and comprehensive address Mr. Fisher said that the Board of Trade took the strongest possible objection to the proposed classification and asked that approval should not be given. Objection was taken on the following grounds: It would cause inconvenience and disturbance to the trade of western Canada for which no compensating advantages were shown by the railways; it was inconvenient in arrangement and difficult to use in many respects; it caused advances in rates in a very large number of instances by raising the classification on numerous items, and provided reductions in a relatively small number of items; it raised minimum weights on innumerable items affording considerable increase in revenue to the carriers at a sacrifice of the convenience of the public, without according the public any concessions; the substitution of rule 7 in the proposed classification for the present rule 2 would introduce a principle which was diametrically opposed to the spirit of the classification at present in effect, so far as western traffic was concerned and would result in the most serious and widespread dislocation in the commerce of western Canada.

Mr. Fisher said that the effect of rule 7 would undoubtedly be to divert the trade of the local territory from the western districts to the east, and to transfer it to eastern centres, and give the wheeler two thousand miles away an advantage over the house on the ground. Mr. Fisher argued that it was not for the distributing houses on the ground that there would be no extra charge to the city at Edmonton. He entered a strong protest against the constantly shifting minimum weights under the proposed classification, which according to his showing, would be a thing a dealer when making a car load order was altering the minimum weight with practically every article that he added to his order list.

H. H. Cooper, of the MacDonald, Cooper Co., spoke of the great competition among wholesalers in the grocery business in the west, and said that the competition was so keen that the least rebate secured by the jobber when purchasing or transacting his business in any way reacted in favor of the ultimate consumer.

Favors Small Increase. J. E. Brown, president of the board of trade, said that they were objecting to the classification on behalf of the wholesalers. They felt that the railways should have a small increase in revenue, and were willing to allow it, but the proposal was a general rate all round in rates.

Mr. Ransome, who represented the Canadian Freight Association, said that the classification was at once a reduction and an advance.

The chairman: "What sort of an Irishman do you call that?"

Mr. Fisher said that complaints had been registered by the boards of trade of Winnipeg, Vancouver, Calgary and Edmonton, the Canadian Manufacturers' association, and the Retail Merchants' association of Saskatchewan against the proposed increase in the rail and water rates from eastern to western Canada.

Edmonton Not Objecting. Mr. Fisher said the Edmonton board of trade was not objecting to this increase, and their names had not been put on the proposed revised demurrage rules that had been submitted by the railway companies for the approval of the board. Mr. Fisher said that the Edmonton board of trade opposed the suggested rate of $2 per day for cars held without being unloaded, as this would be giving revenue to the railways and would not be fair. They favored that the charges should be $1 for the first day, $2 for the second day and $3 per day thereafter. It was thought that this would check anyone keeping a car for storage purposes.

The commissioners ordered a fourth class station at Legal on the Canadian Northern Railway, and that a caretaker should be provided, who could act as grain agent, and it would be seen if this arrangement worked out satisfactorily.

There was an application from the G.T.P. for an inspection of the bridge between section 46 and township 46 and 46, range 24, W. of 4th, in the Bitter Lake Local Improvement District, and for a certificate releasing the amount advanced by the Alberta authorities towards the construction of the bridge.

The release of this money, amounting to $700, was allowed, and an arrangement was sanctioned whereby the Alberta authorities pay $100 per year, dating from 1915, towards the maintenance and inspection of the bridge.

Vegreville Case. Vegreville asked for a reconsideration of the order made in March, 1917, under which the town has to pay the wages of the watchman at the C.N.R. crossing at Main street, Vegreville.

H. H. Parlee, K.C., appeared on behalf of the applicants, it being urged by him that the payment of the watchman's wages was a financial burden on the town.

RAE CERTAIN TO GET PEACE RIVER VOTE

Great Work That Sifton Government Has Done for North Improves Electors

(Special to The Bulletin) Spirit River, Alta., June 18.—That the Liberal candidate is a sure winner in the Peace River constituency was the consensus of opinion after the electors had listened attentively to addresses by the Liberal candidate and the Hon. Mr. Boyle at Spirit River.

There were frequent rounds of applause when the speakers reminded the audience that the Sifton government had staked their existence on their program of development in the north country and that other parts of the province evidently approved of their policy or they would not have returned them to power for another term.

Mr. Rae, the Liberal candidate, gave a telling speech and made a very marked impression on his listeners by his clear and simple manner. Many of the audience were newcomers to the country and the issues in this election were placed squarely before them. The Hon. Mr. Boyle pointed out to the audience that at the time when it seemed as though construction on the railway would be delayed on account of the railway company not being able to dispose of their bonds, the government had come to their assistance with a loan of two million dollars, so that construction might not be delayed.

He also related with telling effect how the making of this loan, and the right of the railway company to be able to dispose of their bonds, the government had come to their assistance with a loan of two million dollars, so that construction might not be delayed.

The Hon. Duncan Marshall and the Hon. Mr. Mitchell will address meetings here on Wednesday night and the Hon. Chas. Stewart and Willard Garfield will address meetings on Saturday night.

City Police Court Edgar Haughton, of 11415 85th St., and Mrs. M. Robinson, of 11811 85th St., were found guilty in the police court Tuesday morning on charges of assault. Haughton was charged with assaulting Mrs. Robinson and the latter was charged with assaulting Edgar Haughton's wife. Sentence was put over until Wednesday.

The evidence submitted to the court an argument commenced between the two women over a boy in a swing on a vacant lot.

James Lee of the Oxford Rooming House on First street was fined $25 and costs or 30 days in jail on a charge of unlawfully keeping liquor for sale.

For speeding on Jasper avenue, between 107th and 108th street, A. E. Simpson was fined $3 and costs or 5 days in jail. Fred. Pochebusch was fined $1 and costs on a charge of speeding.

On charges of vagrancy Andrew Aitken was sentenced to one month in jail with hard labor and Tanuska Gerlewicz was fined $2 and costs or 10 days in jail. Aitken was picked up in a lane behind the Jasper hotel in an intoxicated condition.

William Michuk and John Mortland appeared on charges of keeping a house of ill fame and were remanded to Thursday. Maggie Coleman and Rosie Goodwin were charged with being inmates and received in like treatment.

The above engraving is the emblem of the Automobile club, which the members are putting on their wind shields. It is a very effective design, being just large enough to easily distinguish the car as being of the Automobile club. It is called a "De Calomani" emblem, and is easily applied on the glass, and is so made that after it is on, water or washing will not affect it.

President Brookbank wants all members to get their emblems on their cars at once. Extra emblems can be secured from the secretary for 25c per.

J. W. Connelly, chairman of the membership committee, is more than pleased with the fine showing his committee is making in getting new members. He says that all the auto owners he has approached very quickly become members, when it is explained the good work the club is doing, and he wishes known that any outsider who wants to become a member will assist the committee greatly by sending in his cheque of $5.00, made out to the Edmonton Automobile club, mailing it care of Mr. Leod building. The club's phone number is 2944.

There is a general meeting of all the members of the club being held at 12:30 noon on Wednesday. The telephone committee reports a large attendance expected.

350 RECRUITS FLYING CORPS SINCE MAY 1

Lieut. Robert Daniel In Charge In Western Canada Visits Edmonton.

Lieut. Robert Daniel, who is in charge of recruiting for the Royal Flying Corps in Western Canada, with headquarters at 295 Main street, Winnipeg, who visited Edmonton on Monday stated that the West had come through so far particularly well in recruiting, over 350 men having joined up since the beginning of May. The lieutenant explained that a number of officers have been sent over to Canada by the Imperial Government to arrange for the training of Canadian pilots in this country. Hitherto there have been cases where men have left Canada to join the flying corps in England and have found after they got there that they were unsuitable. It is for that reason that the training is being done in Canada before the men are overseas. Colonel C. G. Hoare is in command of the Imperial Royal Flying Corps in Canada.

In addition to flying men, a large number of mechanics of different trades are required. Among these are included acetylene welders, vulcanizers, blacksmiths, tinmiths, copersmiths, fitters, turners, machinists, steamfitters, painters, automobile mechanics and drivers, motor cyclists, tailors, sailmakers, upholsterers, wireless operators, wireless mechanics, male clerks, stenographers, etc.

It is pointed out that apart from the men having a particularly interesting occupation, at the same time as serving their country, the men are breaking into a new industry at no expense to themselves, which will vastly increase their wage-earning capacity after the war is over. The aeroplane has come to stay, and will be one of the most important commercial propositions when peace comes.

The Royal Flying Corps is divided up into wings, which in turn are divided into squadrons, which again are divided into flights, consisting of a number of machines. The keynote of the organization of the flying corps is decentralization, that is to say, each flight is entirely self-contained and provided with its own workshop, and is able to work independently. The men are also taught to act for themselves and are often sent out to do important work without having an officer in command. This shows that they have to be men of an exceptionally high class and of good character.

When the men first join they are enlisted as second-class air mechanics at $1.25 per week, including food, with all food, clothing, etc., found. The fact that they are enlisted as second-class mechanics does not mean they are second-class craftsmen. Second-class air mechanics are really the army rank of sergeant. On promotion to first air mechanics they receive $1.60 per day, corporals get $1.70, sergeants $2, flight sergeants $2.30, and sergeant-majors $2.60. Special allowances and patriotic money is granted to married men from the date of their enlistment at the usual Canadian rates.

At the corner of 109th street and Peace avenue on Monday night.

For riding a bicycle on a sidewalk Stanley Parker was fined $1 and costs. Judgment was reserved on the charge of false pretences against Stephen A. Hammond. According to Stephen A. Malone, the complainant, the accused secured a large amount of potatoes from him by false pretences through a check that was returned marked "not sufficient funds."

Alphonse Ticher, of 12524 101st street, faced two charges of having stolen property in his possession. According to the evidence a son of the accused, who had been working in that field for his father's house. The property alleged to have been stolen consisted in part of a cultivator, dishes, books and clothing. The case was adjourned until Wednesday morning. Sentence on a third charge will be taken.

The question of dog poisoning is still under investigation.

Inspector Down reported for the month that sixty-two cases had been reported and twelve reprimands given. There were fifty-nine cases investigated, two persons summoned and one convicted.

WHO KNOWS OF J. B. FLYNN Hyatt Cox, the American Consular Agent, writes the Bulletin regarding one J. B. Flynn, who was last reported in Winnipeg. He says: "I have an inquiry from a Mrs. J. B. Flynn of Kansas City, Missouri. She is very anxious to locate her husband, Mr. J. B. Flynn who was last heard from on May 14th from Winnipeg. He is described as being about 55 years of age; weight about 190 lbs. If you could assist me in securing any trace of this man it would be very much appreciated."

EXPLOSION CAUSES FIRE. St. Paul, June 19.—An explosion, believed to have been due to spontaneous combustion in chemicals in a room, on the third floor, hurled flames towards the A. J. SHelters for Live Stock by Railways Question Discussed Before Commission—Railroads Promise to Make Provision.

The provision of shelters for the railway companies for live stock was discussed before the board of railway commissioners on Tuesday afternoon, the matter being introduced by W. F. Stevens, live stock commissioner for the province.

Mr. Henry Drayton said that this question had been brought before him previously and he understood that some arrangements would be made. Had nothing been done, he asked.

Mr. Drayton said that he had gone into the subject and had procured estimates for the erection of shelters at a cost of about $100 each, but on submitting the proposal to the companies they failed to approve and nothing had been done.

A representative of the C. N. R. said that the reason for this was that the building suggested by Mr. Stevens was not considered a sufficiently substantial shelter required, Mr. Stevens? Can you send me a list?

Mr. Stevens answered that he would do so.

PERSONAL

Rev. F. W. H. Armstrong, formerly one of the pioneer Methodist ministers of the Peace River country, was a visitor to the city Tuesday while on his way from Lamont, where he has been stationed, to his new field at Strathroy, Ont. Mr. Armstrong spent five and a half years in mission work in the northland missions of the Methodist church, and his many friends there and in the city join in wishing him every success in his work at Strathroy.

SHELTERS FOR LIVE STOCK BY RAILWAYS

Question Discussed Before Commission—Railroads Promise to Make Provision.

The provision of shelters for the railway companies for live stock was discussed before the board of railway commissioners on Tuesday afternoon, the matter being introduced by W. F. Stevens, live stock commissioner for the province.

Mr. Henry Drayton said that this question had been brought before him previously and he understood that some arrangements would be made. Had nothing been done, he asked.

Mr. Drayton said that he had gone into the subject and had procured estimates for the erection of shelters at a cost of about $100 each, but on submitting the proposal to the companies they failed to approve and nothing had been done.

A representative of the C. N. R. said that the reason for this was that the building suggested by Mr. Stevens was not considered a sufficiently substantial shelter required, Mr. Stevens? Can you send me a list?

Mr. Stevens answered that he would do so.

The railway representative said that they would be willing to erect certain of the shelters. They could not do a great deal all at once, but they would have a conference with Mr. Stevens and select the places where they were most needed. A certain number would be provided each year.

Mr. Stevens asked the commissioners if the railway had ceased the practice of sending cars to initial points.

The chairman said that the C. P. R. has discontinued the practice, but the other railways have not. The commissioners at other places, and a report would be made later on the matter.

Mr. Stevens said that he had mentioned the matter because of the near approach of the live stock season.

DOCTOR PLEADS HE DIDN'T KNOW POUND The report that a certain medical man had dropped a cat and two kittens from his automobile by the roadside, leaving them to starve to death, instead of taking them to the pound, where they could be painlessly electrocuted, excited much indignation when it was made at yesterday's meeting of the Edmonton branch of the Alberta Humane Society.

The doctor told Inspector Down that he was in ignorance of the existence of the pound and promised to take the cats to the pound the next day. The society passed a vote of thanks to the humane woman who provided food and shelter for the animals in the meantime.

The society was informed that the three horses recently found in a starving condition in a stable by Mr. Down, the secretary of the society, were finally located in a hospital, where he had lain unconscious for several days. The animals were given every care by the E. H. S., but as one of the horses died, the wood of the stall one had to be shot.

Commendation was expressed by the meeting at the action of the city council in passing a resolution to have two faithful old horses, Dick and Jack, and a unanimous vote of thanks was passed to Mr. Down for the part he had taken in the matter.

It was reported that another cruelty case had been won in the courts. This time action had been taken against one of the Edmonton City Dairy drivers, who was charged with the neglect of five horses belonging to the Army society took no pleasure in prosecuting these cases, but would be delinquent in its duty if it let them pass.

The annual prize of a gold medal for the best kept aged horse will be presented at the forthcoming exhibition by D. W. Warner, the society's representative on the exhibition board.

The question of dog poisoning is still under investigation.

Inspector Down reported for the month that sixty-two cases had been reported and twelve reprimands given. There were fifty-nine cases investigated, two persons summoned and one convicted.

HEAVY RAINS, WARM WEATHER BRING CROPS ON RAPIDLY

Reports From Correspondents of Provincial Department of Agriculture Indicate Good Growth—Hail is Reported From One District, But Little Damage Resulted, Owing to Late Growth.

Alberta crop conditions for the past week show all grains have made good growth, notwithstanding slight frosts in several districts. Heavy rains and warmer weather prevailed over a large portion of the province, but more moisture is needed in the eastern part of the central district. Seeding for greenfeed is still in progress in many localities on account of the late spring and wet weather. Hail is reported from one district, but owing to the delayed growth of crops, little damage resulted.

Live stock is doing well everywhere, with no disease reported. Telegraphed reports from correspondents of the provincial department of agriculture are as follows:

Peace River.—At close of last week the total rainfall was ample for some time to come, but heat and sunshine were required. No rainfall last week. First half of week cool and cloudy, nights threatening frost. Second half warm with bright sunshine; warmer nights. Weather conditions now ideal for plant growth.

Lethbridge.—Greenfeed seeding still in operation. Wheat seven to eight inches high, oats eight to nine inches and barley four inches. Fall rye headed out, Frost June 12th and 13th. Rain needed badly.

Stony Plain.—Moisture sufficient; showers soon needed. Temperature elevated considerably. Cereals advancing rapidly. Twenty-five per cent greenfeed not yet sown. Hay crop short.

Vermilion.—Crops doing fairly well on the whole. Corn, wheat and oats quite good, but worms doing some harm, especially in gardens seeded on dry summer-fallow. No rain and high winds every day. Some frost during past few nights.

Sedgewick.—The wheat, in spite of dry weather, is looking well. Oats and barley not so good. The frost was slight on the 12th; not much harm done. Roots and corn are far back for this time of the year. If rain does not come soon there will be very little hay.

Olds.—Week of ideal growing weather. Moisture plentiful; light showers on four days giving precipitation of three-tenths inch. Last three days clear and very warm. Minimum temperatures from 36 to 46, average 40. Maximum temperatures from 56 to 78, average 65. All crops growing rapidly. Wheat six inches high, oats and barley five inches. Late sown crops making good headway. Native hay and pasture have made recent rapid growth. Timothy tea; lucerne high. Livestock of all kinds in splendid condition.

Medicine Hat.—Oats growing nicely, corn and turnips slow, alfalfa and rye growing good. Weather conditions, cool. Livestock in good shape.

Clearholm.—During the past week the thermometer ranged from almost freezing to 76 degrees. A total of 2.33 inches of rain fell Saturday. Some hail first of week accompanied with high wind which beat crops down, damaging alfalfa considerably; since then all crops on drained soil growing rapidly. Some oats and barley yet to sow in district. Some alfalfa and rye doing well.

Calgary.—Weather ideal. Everything doing well.

MRS. J. S. HENRY, MOTHER OF MAYOR, DIES IN CALGARY Word was received in the city this morning of the death in Calgary at an early hour of Mrs. John S. Henry, mother of Mayor Henry. The mayor had been called on Sunday night and was able to spend the last hours at the bedside. Mrs. Henry, who was 68 years of age, had been suffering from a long illness.

Mr. Stevens asked the commissioners if the railway had ceased the practice of sending cars to initial points.

The chairman said that the C. P. R. has discontinued the practice, but the other railways have not. The commissioners at other places, and a report would be made later on the matter.

Mr. Stevens said that he had mentioned the matter because of the near approach of the live stock season.

HAD INDIGESTION

Could Keep
Nothing on Stomach

Indigestion is one of the worst forms of stomach trouble. The stomach becomes upset and you have a raw, debilitated feeling in it.

After a meal you feel that you must get rid of that nasty, bitter, burning sensation; that souring and rising of the food which is so unpleasant and in many cases very painful.

It is not necessary for you to be troubled with indigestion when Burdock Blood Bitters may be so easily obtained. This old and well-known remedy, which is a combination of nature's best roots, herbs, barks and berries will cure indigestion and all stomach troubles.

Mr. Lazare Savoy, Pekemouche, N. B., writes: "About two years ago I was troubled with indigestion that had I could keep nothing on my stomach. I was sorely disappointed in everything I tried to relieve me. At last a friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I took four bottles and can now eat anything that is set in front of me."

That grand old medicine, B.B.B., has been on the market for over forty years, and we claim, without any fear of contradiction, that it is the best cure for all stomach troubles.

This Will Remove Hair or Fuzzy Growths

(Toilet Tips)

A safe, certain method for ridding the skin of ugly, hairy growths is as follows: Mix a paste with some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface about 2 minutes, then rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is entirely harmless and seldom requires repeating, but to avoid disappointment it is advisable to see that you get genuine delatone.

The Daily Poem

A CALL TO CANADIAN MEN.

(Written by the little child)

Boys! where are you today?

And why not the khaki on?

Is it because you are unfit?

This hero's suit to don?

Or is it that you're waiting?

For someone to go ahead?

And take your place in the trenches?

Because you don't like hot lead?

Or do you reply when questioned:

"Wait till the Germans come here."

Lois of time then to fight them.

And I'll fill in never fear!

Fear! I should think you would shudder.

When you think of Belgium's fate.

The slaughter and the mighty hate.

Are you going to wait, I ask you.

Are you going to wait when you know?

Your mothers, sisters and sweethearts

Would be toys in the hands of the foe?

Why not go before they get here?

And give your life if you must.

For God, for King and for Country.

And for friends you love and trust.

Who'll be the first to go and fight?

Your country calls for men!

Recruits are wanted, young and old.

Who'll be the first to volunteer?

And in the khaki clad.

Go forth and in a country's name

Make a brave people glad!

Crude as "poetry" but "the real stuff" in manly patriotism.

summed her duties on the Journal today.

Mrs. Baetz left Saturday to attend the annual convention of the Canadian

Press association in Toronto—Fort

Saskatchewan conservator.

Miss Janet Petch was entertained by the girls of All Saints' choir on Saturday afternoon to a tea and linen shower on the occasion of her marriage, which takes place the 1st of August.

Miss Petch has been a faithful member of the choir for some time and the ladies took this opportunity of showing their appreciation for such, as well as an interest in the approaching event. The tea and shower was given in the school room of All Saints' and a very happy time was spent. Miss

Petch was the recipient of some very pretty and useful linen.

Mrs. F. B. Fulton, wife of the manager of the Hudson's Bay Co. store at

Dunvegan, with her father and mother,

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Anderson, were in the city yesterday on their way to visit the coast. They will go via the G. T. P. to Prince Rupert, thence to Vancouver and Seattle, and return to Edmonton via Calgary. Mr. Anderson was formerly from Strathroy and and more lately from the Watertorh settlement near Dunvegan, where at her residence she completed her household duties. After their holiday travels the family party will return to their home in the case River country.

It was decided to unite with the Ladies'

Aid of the Highlands Methodist church for a picnic in the place of the regular

July meeting at the meeting of the auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society of the Highlands Methodist church on Tuesday afternoon, held at the home of Mrs. C. S. Moffat. The final arrangements of this plan was left to the executive committee of each organization and also for a vacation day for the August meeting.

A very complete and interesting report of the branch meeting held recently at Calgary was given by Mrs.

Coward, the delegate.

On account of the illness of Mrs.

Husband the meeting of Grace Methodist W. M. S., which was to have been held at her home Thursday was held at the home of Mr. D. Ingram. Arrangements were made for the annual crusade. This crusade is a house to house canvass of the members of Grace church to secure new members for the W. M. S. and will take place on Thursday. The meeting has been thrice, and the business of the society is to be resumed as usual in August. A birthday box is to be placed on the table at all meetings in which these members having birthdays during the month are expected to put as many pennies as years old. After all business matters were attended to Mrs.

Ingram served refreshments.

Many useful articles were contributed at the tea and shower, held at

Rosary hall on Tuesday afternoon for the furnishing of the girls' camp at Lac St. Anne. Rosary hall is a very pleasant place at all times, but decorated especially gay on this occasion.

Decorated profusely with fragrant flowers artistically arranged. A large bouquet graced the tea table, where

Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. Gavel, Mrs. Blunt

and Miss Gavel dispensed hospitialities. The reception committee, who gave a warm welcome to the many who attended, were Mrs. Casleman, Mrs. Dwyer, Mrs. Coughlan,

Mrs. Bar, Mrs. Heeley, Mrs. Hawkins, Mrs. Blunt. The affair was under the auspices of the Catholic

Women's League and the president, Mrs.

Dugan, deserves great credit for its success.

THE FATE OF THE NORTH AT STAKE.

The Provincial elections are not finished yet. In Athabasca constituency voting takes place on Wednesday next and in Peace River on Friday the 29th. In Athabasca Hon. A. G. MacKay is again the Liberal candidate. In Peace River, Mr. W. A. Rae is the Liberal nominee and is being opposed by two other candidates. One, a Dominion Government official, is the straight Conservative nominee; the other is appealing for election as a supporter of neither party.

In both ridings the policy of the Sifton Government in extending railway facilities into the north-land will naturally and properly be a main issue. The verdict from these constituencies is likely to be construed elsewhere in the Province as based mainly on that issue, and therefore as expressing a demand of the people most concerned for further railway construction in the north, or as indicating a lack of concern on their part. To the settlers in the north country, and to all whose interests are dependent upon northern settlement and development, the result in these ridings is thus likely to be of material consequence.

These are times when railway construction is not easily secured, and cannot be secured at all without a clear-cut and aggressive policy of railway construction on the part of the Government. Of the populous part of Alberta, only a comparatively small portion is directly interested in the settlement of the north country. Aside from the city of Edmonton, few communities outside the north-land have any direct interest in promoting its development. In the matter of railway construction the immediate interests of most other sections of the Province are in fact opposed to railway construction in the north, as putting a limit on the amount of railway extension possible in districts nearer home. Unless the people in the north-land and the people of Edmonton demand the opening up of the north country it certainly cannot be expected that the people of other sections of the Province will insist upon it at the cost or risk of postponing railway accommodation needed by themselves. If the people of the north-land and the people of Edmonton declare against a policy of railway construction in the north it may be taken as settled that that policy will have to be abandoned and the credit of the Province used in providing railway facilities elsewhere.

By trickery the voters in Edmonton have been put in the position of declaring against the policy of northern railway construction and development. If the people in the north allow themselves to be put in the same position it will be useless to expect the representatives from the other portions of the Province—many of which also need more railway accommodation—to demand or even support, a continuance of railway building in the north country. The fate of the north rests in the hands of the people of the north. If they declare for the further extension of railway facilities the history and recognized policy of the Sifton Government is guarantee that they will get these facilities as conditions warrant. If, for any reason, they are induced to pronounce against the policy of northern railway construction the prospect is that that policy will break down and northern settlement and development be accordingly deferred.

For the people in the Peace River district the situation is unusually critical. That vast region of agricultural land is not by any means wholly served by the railway accommodation thus far provided. Such accommodation as the settlers there have was secured to them by the aggressive policy of the Sifton Government and was fought and voted against in the Legislature by Mr. Michener and his followers in a body. In the recent campaign in Edmonton, Mr. Ewing persistently and vigorously condemned the extension of the E.D. & B.C. railway westward to Pouce Coupe, lest this road should ultimately join with the Pacific and Great Eastern and so provide the people in the Peace River district with an alternative outlet and inlet for trade—to and from Vancouver. The issue before the voters is therefore plain. If they return the Government candidate they will thus declare for a continuance of the policy that has been and is opening up the north to settlement, production and business development; if they return an opposing candidate they will thus refuse the approval without which the policy of northern railway construction cannot be expected to be carried on.

SUITS HIM EXACTLY.

Selective conscription for military service only is the sort of compulsion to be popular with the man who wants some one else forced to fight while he loafs.

HELPLESS TALKERS.

Late reports say the dominating assemblage in Russia is occupying itself with the question of whether the late Czar shall be allowed to vote. If the Russians keep on concerning themselves in matters of that relative importance the Kaiser may decide for them how many of them shall vote and for what. If they are saved from that fate the prospect is that it will have to be done without much help from them.

AN IMPORTANT POINT.

One important question about which nothing has yet been given out is whether Quebec is to be required to bring up its enlistments into proportion to those from the other provinces before conscription is applied elsewhere than in Quebec. That is a point on which the public ought to be informed, and informed at once. Alberta, for example, has voluntarily supplied six thousand men more than the number asked for. Are still more men to be taken from this Province—where men are already too scarce to carry on the "basic industries" as they should be carried on—without Quebec being first required to make up the quota asked from that military district?

DIFFERENT HERE.

A bill is being introduced in Parliament requiring that all the clocks in the country be set ahead an hour for the summer. The idea is to get people to go to bed when it gets dark and get up when it gets light, instead of prowling about half the night and sleeping in the morning. In the southern portion of the Dominion it will no doubt be welcomed by the more steady going sections of the populace, and may result in some of the economic advantages that are claimed for it. But no great amount of enthusiasm for the measure is likely to be provoked in this high latitude. What is really needed here is not a scheme to make people sleep only when it is dark, but one to provide them with enough darkness to sleep in.

CONSCRIPTION OF ALL OR ONLY OF A FEW?

Selective conscription for the army as a part of an all-round compulsory service system is logical and fair, and necessary if the whole strength of the nation is to be put into the struggle. But as a substitute for an all-round compulsory system military conscription is neither fair nor logical, nor even a pretense at bringing the whole strength of the nation to bear upon the enemy. Standing by itself, selective conscription means that we are to pick out a certain number of men and impose upon them the most terrible sacrifice men can be made to endure, while the rest of us retain our freedom to loaf or to fritter away our time at work which makes no difference to the nation or the enemy. That is not fair as between men, and it certainly is not mobilizing and utilizing the whole strength of our man power. Conscription for the army should be accompanied by conscription for war work and productive employment, to whatever extent may be necessary to develop the maximum output of munitions and to carry on the basic industries without which the nation cannot live.

The Militia Act.

To the Bulletin: What are the main provisions of the Canadian Militia Act? J. E. Edmonton.

By the Militia Act of 1904 the militia of Canada is declared to consist of all the male inhabitants of Canada of the age of 18 years or upwards and under 60, not exempted or disqualified by law, this population being divided into four classes. The first class comprises those aged 18 or upwards and under 30, being unmarried or widowers without children. The second class comprises those between the ages of 30 and 45, being unmarried or widowers without children. The third class comprises those between 45 and 55, being married or widowers with children. The fourth class comprises those between 45 and 60.

Current Comment

MIGHT HAVE BEEN AVOIDED.

(From the Calgary News-Telegram)

One of Sir Robert Borden's cabinet ministers has resigned, and the indications are that not only will there be more cabinet resignations, but that a considerable number of his followers in the house of commons will bolt the party. All this has been avoided, it is before making any announcement with respect to conscription, the prime minister had taken the precaution to "fix his political fences." In times of war, an army of soldiers—political, parliamentary or otherwise—are not much good unless there are generals and lieutenants to lead them; and, in the political sphere, it seems it is almost impossible to mobilize an army without generals and lieutenants.

CONSCRIPTION IN CANADA.

(From the New York Outlook)

Canada faces today a serious political crisis. The premier has called for conscription to support her armies on the western front, but against such a policy decided opposition has developed, especially in the French Canadian province of Quebec. It is reported that, faced by this active opposition, Premier Borden, the Conservative, has made overtures to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Liberal leader, in the hope that a coalition government can be formed. Premier Borden owes his position to an unofficial coalition between the Conservatives and the Nationalist party. How shaky a foundation such a combination supplies for the premier may be realized from the statement of Henri Bourassa, leader of the Nationalist party in Quebec, who says: "It is useless to disguise the truth; two million French-Canadians in a block are opposed to conscription."

To understand the attitude of Quebec toward conscription and the significance of an all-Canadian demonstration on the part of French-Canadians it is necessary to go back to the year 1909, when, acting upon an ultimatum of the house of commons, Sir Wilfrid Laurier undertook, as part of the Liberal policy, the formation of a Canadian naval service, which was to be supported by co-operation with the naval forces of other parts of the British empire in time of war. This policy of Sir Wilfrid's was attacked by a group of men known as the "Nationalists" on the score that it meant participation by Canada in European wars. So successfully did the Nationalists conduct their campaign in the first by-election in the province of Quebec after the inauguration of the naval policy that Sir Wilfrid's cabinet was defeated and the Nationalist candidate returned. The Conservative party in Quebec refrained from placing a candidate in the first by-election, and the Nationalists, when the federal elections of 1911 were held, the Conservatives made a secret campaign in the Nationalists. It was agreed that Liberal candidates should be opposed by Nationalist candidates in a number of constituencies, and by Conservatives in others, and that where the Nationalists were opposing the Liberals they should be assisted by Conservatives, and where the Conservatives were opposing the Liberals they should be assisted by Nationalists. This policy was carried out with great success, and the Nationalists carried some seventeen seats, and received recognition of their services three of the portfolios in Sir Robert Borden's cabinet. The Nationalist party, instead of vanishing after the election of 1911, gained a consciousness of its power which it theretofore had not had, and the next campaign in the province of Quebec against conscription is the logical sequence of these events.

OUR MEN.

They watch o'er us: Upon the waste of waters.

Through sultry nights, through days of blinding heat.

Or where the winds far up in northern quarters.

Over the waves weave their gray, winding sheet;

They keep their guard as faithful, true and tender.

As mother o'er her child.

Watch, Thou, o'er them, O Father and Defender.

Who watch o'er us.

They fight for us! on sea, in trench o'er mountain.

They struggle on through storm and shot and shell;

O'er sandy desert, past the poisoned fountain.

They still press on against the hosts of hell;

They fight for right, holding their flag the faster.

As fought the saints of old.

Fight, Thou, for them, our Captain and our Master.

Who fight for us!

They die for us! ah, thought of awful sorrow!

In their fair youth they die, in their full age.

In torment and alone, that our own morning.

May bear no shame or stain upon its page!

Laying their lives down gladly for some other.

Poor friends, perchance unknown. Receive their souls, their saviour and their Brother.

Who die for us.

—Chambers' Journal.

"Well, you might call it a run of luck; I got away."

TEACHERS' SALARIES

Editor Bulletin

Sir: Referring to the letter from the city's high school teachers published in your issue today, I am directed by resolution of a general meeting of the Public School Teachers' association, to better fulfill their duty of the correspondence to and from the education authorities in eastern and western cities, they unanimously support the protest voiced by the high school teachers against the charge of "misleading statements" made by the chairman of the school board in reply to the applications presented by both high school and public school staffs for the stoppage of the 10 per cent.

I have further to say that only two, or at most three, public school principals in the whole city are at present receiving (and that from length of service) the higher rate of salary several times mentioned by the chairman, and to emphatically repeat that the teachers are not asking an increase, but only their full schedule rate, to enable them—under the present stress and strain in continually increasing living costs and general maintenance—to better fulfill their duty to the city's children.

W. LEONARD HUMPHREYS,
President Edmonton Public School Teachers' Association.

LABORISTS FAVOR WIDER CONSCRIPTION

Toronto, June 19.—The Greater Toronto Labor party is opposed to the Borden conscription policy, but agreeable to a policy of wider scope. The party at a meeting attended by 100 delegates, went on record as in favor of conscription of man-power only on condition that food, wealth, railways, steamships and all other resources of the nation be conscripted for the winning of the war.

Adventures of Uncle Wiggily

By Howard R. Galt

Uncle Wiggily and the Duchess

Copyright, 1917, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

Uncle Wiggily Longears, the rabbit gentleman, was hopping along through the woods one day, looking for an adventure, when, all of a sudden, he came to a door standing open between two trees. It was a regular door, with a knob, hinges and all, but the funny part of it was there didn't seem to be a room on either side of it.

"This is remarkable!" exclaimed Wiggily, "remarkable" meaning the same thing as "odd." "It is very odd! Here is a door and the jamb, but no room on either side of it. 'Where's the jam?' asked a little katydid, who was sitting on a leaf in the sun. 'I'm very fond of jam,' said Wiggily, 'including the jam you eat on bread,' spoke Uncle Wiggily. 'I was talking about the jam-b—' with a bang.

"There make honey," said the katydid, "and that's almost as good as jam."

"No, there isn't any honey, either," said the bunny. "The jamb of the door is the wooden frame that goes around it, to hold it in place."

"Then I don't want any door jamb—I want bread and jam!" cried the katydid, hopping off to find her sister, Katydid, leaving Uncle Wiggily to stare at the lone door.

"Well," said the rabbit gentleman to himself, "I may as well see what's on the other side. Though a door all by itself in the woods is the strangest thing I've ever seen."

However, he turned the knob, opened the door and stepped through, and to his surprise, he found himself in a big kitchen, which seemed magically to have appeared the moment he entered it. At one end was a big stove, with a hot fire in it, and on the stove was boiling a kettle of soup, which was being stirred by a big fat cook lady, who was shaped like a ham, without the string in the end, of course. For the cook could stand and didn't need to be hung on a nail as a ham is.

In front of the fire was another large lady with a bonnet on almost as large as the Hatter's hat. Over the bonnet was a wire, flowing like a waterfall. "Now please be quiet—do!" exclaimed the sitting down lady to something in her lap, and Uncle Wiggily saw that it was a baby. "Come, come," she cried, "is that hot soup ready yet for the baby?"

"Not yet, mum. But it soon will be," answered the cook, and Uncle Wiggily was just going to say something about not giving a little baby hot soup, when the door opened again, and in came Alice, the white rabbit. "Oh, I'm so glad you're here, Uncle Wiggily!" cried Alice. "Now it will be all right."

"What will?" asked the bunny. "My left shoe," said Alice. "You see I just came from the Pool of Tears, and everything got all mixed up. When I came out, I had two left shoes instead of a right, but now you are here it's all right—I mean one is right and the other is left, as it should be." Alice put Alice put on one shoe she had been carrying in her hand, and smiled.

"But who is this?" asked Uncle Wiggily, pointing with his red, white and blue striped rheumatism crutch at the big lady holding the baby, which was now squirming like an angry worm.

"It's the Duchess—a friend of the Queen of Hearts," answered Alice. "I'll introduce you to her in a minute. Are you fond of sneezing?" "Only when I have a cold," answered Uncle Wiggily. "Why do you ask?" and he began to think he was having a very funny adventure indeed. "Why should I be fond of sneezing?"

"Because you'll have to whether you like it or not," answered Alice. "The Duchess is going to take you and the baby now—it's just had a bath."

With that the Duchess, who is the wife of a duke, you know, called: "Here, cook! Never mind the soup. Give me the pepper!"

"Goodness me, sakes alive and some horseradish lollypops!" cried Uncle Wiggily, "she isn't going to take me and the baby with pepper, is she?"

"Of course," answered Alice. "That's the way in the book from which I came to have this adventure with you, so, of course, it has to be. Look out—here come the sneezes!" and Alice got out her handkerchief.

Just I have found him!" and he made a dash for Uncle Wiggily. The dodo was just going to grab the bunny gentleman in his claws, and Mr. Longears was so shivery he didn't know what to do, when the Duchess, suddenly tossing the baby to the cook, cried: "Ha! No you don't! I guess it's you I want to pepper instead!" and with that she shook the box of pepper at the dodo, who began sneezing as hard as he could sneeze.

"Aker-choo! Aker-choo! Aker-choo!" sneezed the dodo.

"Keer-zoo! Keer-zoo! Keer-zoo!" sneezed the Duchess.

"Goo-snitzi! Goo-snitzi! Goo-snitzi!" sneezed Alice.

"Fiz-buzz! Fiz-buzz! Fiz-buzz!" sneezed Uncle Wiggily, and then the dodo gave another very large sneeze and then sent a great gust of wind blowing himself backward out of the door. So he didn't get Uncle Wiggily after all.

"And now we are all right," said Alice, when they had all finished sneezing, including the baby. "Have some soup, Uncle Wiggily."

"So the bunny did, finding it very good, and made from cabbage, and growing. I found a little worm's nest out in the lollypop stick doesn't have to go out and help the wash lady hold up the clothesline when it goes fishing for apple pie I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the cook."

"Well," said the rabbit gentleman to himself, "I may as well see what's on the other side. Though a door all by itself in the woods is the strangest thing I've ever seen."

However, he turned the knob, opened the door and stepped through, and to his surprise, he found himself in a big kitchen, which seemed magically to have appeared the moment he entered it. ## Sidelights on the War

PATRIOTISM AND THE STOMACH. Now it is the turn of the people of the United States to help win the war by depriving the enemy of the American Relief Commission in Belgium, who knows the war from its food aspect, probably better than any man alive, has sent out the call to all citizens to be patriotic in their eating. With the people in America this will be voluntary. Not so has it been with the people in Europe, particularly those of the Central Powers. Germans were the first to know what food control meant. For two years there has been no fat for general consumption and, as soap has been unknown for an equal length of time. We are fortunately more favored than the people of the Central Powers, whose sufferings, especially in winter, have been terrible beyond words. A young woman recently landed in New York from a European port. She had come out of Germany, where she had been described how it was impossible to keep warm during the winter months because of the lack of fat, and the consequent suffering of the children, because no fats were contained in their food. And William Bayard Hale, the American author and correspondent, who has been in Germany for the past two years, has just told of the emotions evoked in him by the sight of bacon and eggs when he reached Cologne. Germany's food restrictions have been imposed upon her. England followed suit some time ago. Mr. Hoover asks Americans to impose restraints upon themselves if they want to escape the food dictatorship which is in force in Germany and England.

Little Stories of Big Men CHARLEY MURPHY, OF TAMMANY HALL, CELEBRATES. 'Tis the greatest day today for Tammany Hall, bedad, for they're celebrating Charley Murphy's birthday. Charley is fifty-nine years old, or rather, young, and has been Chief of the Tammany Clan these many years. Murphy's chief claim to fame is that he never talks. In fair weather or foul, whether fortune smiles or has turned her back on Tammany, Charley Murphy is just as silent as a clam, and you know how silent that is. You just simply can't get a word out of him. If he is perturbed or overjoyed or angry at you, you would never know it to look at him for his expression doesn't change. In a word, Charley is at least a first cousin to the well known Sphinx. Charley Francis Murphy was born in New York on June 29, 1858. He grew up in the famous "Gas House District," which later became his political stronghold and remains so today. Murphy has many friends and at least as many enemies, although the returns on election day have not always borne out this statement. He is decorated by his enemies as an ex-bartender, former street car driver and saloon keeper. They say he has several millions and very likely has. Attempts without number have been made to dislodge him as leader of Tammany, both from within and without. He entered politics as a general utility man to several political leaders. Then he bought a saloon. In 1888 he owned three of these places. Then he organized a local Tammany Club and gradually climbed the political ladder. He has never held office but he has controlled office-holders without number. There are those who say that he "broke" Chief Schuler because that gentleman did not do Murphy's bidding. But, as Kipling says, that is another story. One thing is certain, Charley Murphy has talked less than any other man in politics.

STEAMER IS SUNK. New York, June 12.—The oil tank steamer John D. Archbold, 3,774 tons gross register, of the Standard Oil company, has been sunk by a submarine.

Had Headache For Two Years A Barrie Man Tells of Persistent Headaches and Indigestion—Finally Found His Way to Good Health.

Barrie, Ont., May 23.—For two long years the writer of this letter was subject to severe headaches. The nervous system got run down, digestion failed, and there was continued loss of weight.

The use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food changed all this, and now with scores of other Barrie people Mr. Nader's recommendation of the use of this food cure as the best means of building up the exhausted nervous system and curing headaches, indigestion and all the annoying symptoms of a run-down condition.

Mr. John Nader, 38 Penetang street, Barrie, Ont., writes: "During the last two years I had an attack of indigestion, accompanied by severe headaches. I suffered from loss of appetite, and my system became run down. I also lost considerably in weight. I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and as they helped me I continued this treatment for some time. My condition is now greatly improved, my headaches are gone and my health in general is much better. I can cheerfully recommend the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to those suffering from nervousness of any kind."

As a spring tonic and restorative to overcome tired, languid feelings and build up vitality at this time of year there is nothing to be compared to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, a full treatment of 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations only disappoint.

Had Headache For Two Years
A Barrie Man Tells of Persistent Headaches and Indigestion—Finally Found His Way to Good Health.

Barrie, Ont., May 23.—For two long years the writer of this letter was subject to severe headaches. The nervous system got run down, digestion failed, and there was continued loss of weight.

The use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food changed all this, and now with scores of other Barrie people Mr. Nader's recommendation of the use of this food cure as the best means of building up the exhausted nervous system and curing headaches, indigestion and all the annoying symptoms of a run-down condition.

Mr. John Nader, 38 Penetang street, Barrie, Ont., writes: "During the last two years I had an attack of indigestion, accompanied by severe headaches. I suffered from loss of appetite, and my system became run down. I also lost considerably in weight. I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and as they helped me I continued this treatment for some time. My condition is now greatly improved, my headaches are gone and my health in general is much better. I can cheerfully recommend the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to those suffering from nervousness of any kind."

As a spring tonic and restorative to overcome tired, languid feelings and build up vitality at this time of year there is nothing to be compared to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, a full treatment of 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations only disappoint.
